

R. A. Rajeev takes MMRDA charge

Mumbai, May 2, 2018 – Mr. R. A. Rajeev - a 1987 batch IAS – has been appointed MMRDA's Metropolitan Commissioner, today, after Mr. U.P.S. Madan, was handed over the charge as the Additional Chief Secretary (Finance), Government of Maharashtra. Mr. Rajeev, who took charge of the post today, was working as the Principal Secretary, Finance Department (Expenditure), Government of Maharashtra.

The appointment of Mr. Rajeev is considered very significant inasmuch as the number of projects that are being implemented by MMRDA, especially the 200-km Metro network. He has already worked towards the betterment of two sister cities – Mumbai and Thane – bringing up crucial infrastructure and streamlining various arduous tasks as he tirelessly worked as the Additional Municipal Commissioner of Municipal Corporation of Greater Mumbai and the Commissioner of Thane Municipal Corporation respectively.

Mr. Rajeev has more than 30 years of rich experience in the areas of land revenue and district administration, rural development, environment and forest, environment and pollution control, textiles, urban development, agriculture and co-operation etc. Mr. Rajeev is a Graduate in Political Science, English Literature and Mathematics and post graduate in Political Science from Allahabad University and in Public Administration from Maxwell School University of Syracuse N.Y., USA.