– says Chief Minister

Throws open two flyovers and a vehicular underpass in Thane
Performs Bhoomipujan for a Road, Tunnel and ROB

Mumbai, May 21, 2018 – “I promise you one-hour journey from anywhere to anywhere in the Metropolitan Region within a couple of years”, said the buoyant Chief Minister of Maharashtra Mr. Devendra Fadnavis after throwing open two flyovers in Thane and performing Bhoomipujan for a Rail Over Bridge at, Kopri, Thane and an elevated road and tunnel connecting Thane-Belapur Road and NH-4. “The State Government is very much awake to the commuters’ woes in the city of Mumbai and its metropolitan region and hence are witnessing revolutionary developments as far as road network is concerned. We are also implementing almost 200-km Metro network and introducing integrated ticketing system which will ensure that travel from anywhere to anywhere will not be more than that of only one hour”, Mr. Fadnavis concluded after assuring Ro-Ro service through Eastern water front very soon and a feasibility study as to whether Thane’s container-traffic can also be routed through Ro-Ro to make the life of vehicle owners easier.

Mr. Eknath Shinde, Minister for Public Works (Public Undertaking) and Thane's Guardian Minister demanded, "Multi-level flyovers at Teen Haath Naka considering the ever growing number of vehicles and traffic congestion". He further demanded a Coastal Road from Airoli to Vashi and Vashi to Ulwe.

During the ceremony MMRDA engineers and project contractors who, performed key role in completing the Ghansoli-Talavli flyover along with vehicular underpass and a flyover at Savita Chemicals, were felicitated by the Chief Minister. Mr. Sharad Varaskar, Mr. Milind Jaitpal, both Superintendent Engineers, Mr. Gurudutta Rathod, Deputy Engineer from MMRDA and Project Contractor M/s. J Kumar Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. were the proud recipients.

Also present for the occasion were Mr. Jayawant Sutar, Hon. Mayor, Navi Mumbai Municipal Corporation; Smt. Minakshi Shinde, Hon. Mayor, Thane Municipal Corporation; Mr. Rajan Vichare and Mr. Kapil Patil, both Hon. MPs, Mr. R. A.
