7th Pay Commission and Medical reimbursement for MMRDA employees after retirement

Mumbai, February 22, 2019 – The Mumbai Metropolitan Region Development Authority (MMRDA) has proposed implementation of 7th Pay Commission and reimbursement of medical bills up to rupees five lakh per annum for the MMRDA employees after their retirement, “And I am sure, the Authority will approve both the proposals”, said Metropolitan Commissioner, Mr.R.A.Rajeev. “I also expect the employees to now dedicate themselves even more to their duty with these benefits, and also in the wake of the allotment of affordable houses to them very recently”, said Mr.Rajeev further. He was speaking while celebrating MMRDA’s 44th anniversary at Shanmukhananda Auditorium along with employees.

“Mumbai is a very special city and hence we must dedicate ourselves to the betterment of it”, concluded Mr.Rajeev.

All three organizations – Backward Class Employees’ Union, Employees’ Union and MMRDA Officers’ Association expressed happiness at the positive approach showcased by MMRDA.

MMRDA employees, on the occasion, also enjoyed Vaibhav Parab written Marathi play “Galati Se Mistake”, directed by Sanjay Khapre.

The Anniversary was organized by MMRDA’s Sanskrutik Kala and Krida Mandal
